Note

Letter No. C 1536, dated 11th February 1902, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting for sanction a bill for Rs 549-6-9, being the amount of remuneration payable to the Archaks and others of the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple at Chik Tirupati, Malur Taluk

The temple of the Sri Venkataramanaswami at Chik Tirupati is an important Inam enjoying a small Jaidad of Rs 14. 4. 0 a year. During the car-festival of this temple, which takes place in the month of Chaitra (April) every year a big fair is held at the place, and a large number of cattle are brought there for sale and extensive commerce is carried on on the occasion.

In March 1894, the Deputy Commissioner reported that the temple was in need of much repairs, but that there were then no savings available at the credit of the institution to meet the cost thereof, nor was there any adequate provision for meeting the cost of conservancy and other sanitary arrangements necessary during the jatra time, when a large number of people congregate in the place, and requested sanction of Govt to levy a fee of annas 2 on every head of bull, ox or cow, and an anna on every calf brought for sale during the jatra, and credit the same to the funds of the Institution, 5 per cent of such collections being paid to those that were employed in collecting the same. These proposals of the Deputy Commissioner were sanctioned in Govt Pro: No. 989-90, Dy Nos 87-93 from 23rd March 1894, with effect from the ensuing month of April of that year. Large sums are being realized every year as income from the levy of this fee and from various other sources. It is reported that savings to the extent of Rs 4997-4-3 were available at the credit of the Inst.n at the close of the year 1900-1901. Out of these savings various are being carried out improvements to the temple and sanitary conditions attended to.

In the marginally noted communication, the Deputy Commissioner recommended the payment of one-half the amounts realised in the temple during the every year under the marginally noted items* to the Archaks, ~~Musicians, and Dhobies of~~ the temple in consideration of their due performance of the daily puja, and of their relinquishment of any right to the Agama Karch, and also the payment to the Musicians and ~~to the Dhobies of the temple~~, of one-third the amount realised as Kuvulu Kanike, and to the Dhobies, the amount of Rs 9-4-0 Kandayam on the lands assigned to them for temple service, and also a sum of Rs 7. 7. 0 to the Mantrapushpa Brahmins.

× No. 4470/1395 Dy 16th May 1895 Sl no 8.

This recommendation of the Dy Commissioner was sanctioned,* provisionally for 3 years, and the payments are thenceforth being made on bills year by year to the temple servants ref.d to above, the first of the kind being that for 1893-94

* 1 Nuvdupu
2. Padakanike
3 Naliyenaivedya Kanike
4 Utsavada . . " —
5. Abhishekada - " —
6 Fees for boring holes in the ear
7 Ashottara Kanike
8 Miscellaneous Kanikes put in Dabbi by the devotees.
(Perhaps the item 8 includes the Kuvulu Kanike, left after the portion due to the musicians is subtracted).

* Govt Pro. No. 693-4 Rev. F 87-93 dy 8th Jan 1896.

The period of 3 years ref.d to above having expired with the year 1897-98; but no sanction of Govt. was appears to have been obtained for the continuance of this arrangement. Payments have however being made been sanctioned this year in this Office, year after year till 1899-1900.

The Dy Comm.r has now submitted for sanction a bill for Rs 549-6-9, being the amount of remuneration payable to the Archaks and others for the year 1900-1901. This bill is in accordance with the scale above ref.d to.
